

HQ TUNES: C* copy of MANNING MSS

Felling copy by C* from Manning MSS (in book 1912.
(1895-99)

Johnny

COUNTRY GARDEN - on CD 2755 -

Madam if you please will you buy a peck of peas out of my fine country garden - then out of my fine country get - then. Madam if you please will you buy a peck of peas out of my fine country get - then.

MONDAY and TUESDAY (Sat Night) on CD 2755 - J. Trafford Freeman - J. J. Carter.

Monday and Tuesday and Wednesday after Thursday & Friday & Saturday night.

also:
This was the competitive dance performed at Kittington over 300 years ago by 11. Among other minor dances.
with sticks was considered of (sic)

BALANCE THE SCREW on CD 2756 - Trafford noted by Carter.

The man who is able to balance the screw must first be a bread and butter fellow. The BONNY GREEN GARDES - on CD 2756 - R. Trafford by Carter.

This was called the 'Shake up' which was danced round and round to form a ring so that it would have room to dance other tunes. Although a short piece it was danced in and they like to repeat frequently.

GETTING UP STAIRS - on CD 2756 - by J. J. Carter.

BALANCE THE SCREW - on cat 2756 - Trufford noted by Carter.

The man who is able to balance the screw with first <sup>hand</sup> ~~hand~~ <sup>earn his</sup> ~~earn his~~ breakfast through his jaw the BONNY GREEN GARTERS - on cat 2756 - B. Trufford by Carter.

This was called the 'Shake up' which was danced round and round to form a ring so that all could have room to dance other tunes. Although a short piece it was danced in some places to different tunes.

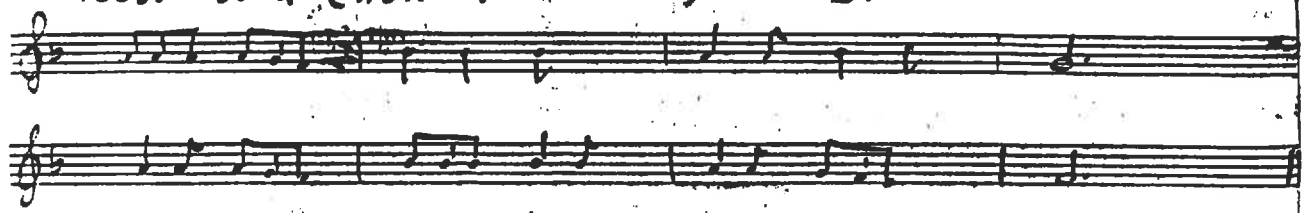

GETTING UP STAIRS - on cat 2756 - by Trufford Carter.

Some like coffee some like tea some like a pretty girl just like me such a getting up stairs and playing on the fiddle such a getting up stairs 9 never met her.

OLD MOTHER OF FOLD - on cat 2757

RIGS OF MARLOW - on cat 2757

FOOLS SONG (HERDINGTON MORRIS) no. 2757

Take an old woman at night
And baste her with kisses
Take her out on a cold winter night
I am sure the lady would freeze

Take her out the next morning
Put her in a bundle of straw
Then set fire to the bottom
I'm sure the old lady would thaw