NEWS

The Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting of the Country Dance and Song Society of America will be held in New York City on December 5, 1981, at 1 PM, in Room 21E, Engineering Building, Cooper Union: East 8th Street (Cooper Square) between Third and Fourth Avenues. (See map.)

Time constraints made it impossible to meet at Pinewoods Camp in August as has been customary in recent years. The Executive Committee, acting for the National Council, chose this time and place as best meeting the requirement of the Constitution to meet "at such place as may be as convenient as possible to the membership." Suggestions for time and place for future meetings may be made at this meeting.

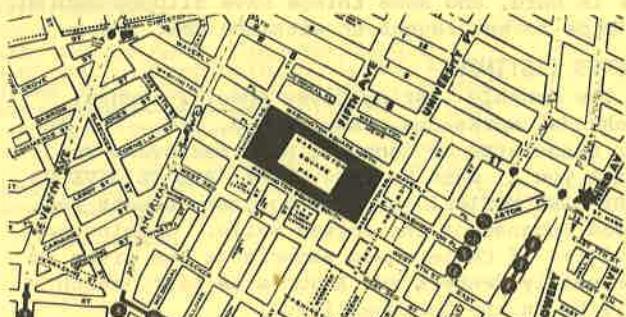

A preliminary agenda is below. Requests for additional agenda items may be mailed to the Secretary c/o CDSS or presented at the meeting.

Letters

Dear CDSS:

Our club had great fun this summer at a covered-dish picnic held to help raise funds for CDT annual fund appeal. Of course our picnic was followed by an evening of dancing our favorite English country & Colonial dances.

Enclosed you will find checks for the money we collected.

Thank you.

Isn't that wonderful! Thank you. BH

Dear CDSS:

San Diego, California must be the ethnic dance capital of the U.S., if not the world. This may be an exaggeration, but anyone looking for any type of ethnic dancing will surely find it there. Last spring Allan and I paid a month's visit to San Diego, where we spent many wonderful hours dancing with international, Scottish, and English Country Dance groups.

The CDSS group in San Diego is small but lively, and they dance with live music - piano, fiddle and recorders. Elaine Regelson led the group for several years, before leaving for a new job in Fort Collins, Colorado. The moving spirits of the San Diego group are the Franklands - Elsie and Harry. They are part of the executive committee and do most of the planning and arranging. Their home is used to teach morris, Rapper and Sword, as well as for partying for the benefit of CDSS. We were interested to hear that the San Diego chapter started early to give benefit parties for Pinewoods, Inc. as well. Theirs was the center that gave most benefits for Pinewoods, and some of these were held in the hospitable house of the Franklands, where one could feast on the delicious fish caught by their son, and cooked by Elsie. Harry is teaching English dancing in the public schools and both Elsie and Harry are active in the English community of San Diego.

Many in the group talked about going either to Pinewoods or to "Pinewoods West" in Mendocino during the summer.

So we can report that English Country Dancing is alive and flourishing in San Diego. We surely enjoyed dancing with a great group of people.

Excerpt of a letter

...Are you interested in a second look at "Dublin Bay"? In the course of teaching it to my group tonight I suddenly realized it could be much improved by two changes:

First man sets to 2nd woman and turns her by LEFT hand (while first woman sets to 2nd man and turns by right hand as usual)

First couple cross as usual by left shoulder, dance around neighbor and end in center, back to back, facing neighbor

First man and 2nd man arm LEFT while first and 2nd women arm right (as usual)

It makes the whole figure more logical and symmetrical. Try it!

For many years at Pinewoods, one was sure to see sooner or later a whole raft of Shrigleys: Ned, Marjorie, and four kids. One of them, Sue Shrigley De Armond, now grown and with children of her own, lives in Tucson and yearned for country dancing. So she started a student group, and wrote asking us please to send somebody to hold a workshop whenever we were able. Well, we learned that Christine and Ed Helwig were planning a trip west, got in touch with them, added a little help from the May Gadd Fund, and ...

Dear CDSS:

One of the special pleasures of traveling west last June was to spend some time with Susan De Armond and the University of Arizona English Country Dance Club in Tucson. Susan scheduled two evening workshops and we had a fine turnout for each -- more than 70 enthusiastic dancers of all ages turned out to dance from 7 to 10 PM on the two evenings, and we could have gone much longer both nights! Their warm reception of both traditional and historic dances was a real thrill to see.

The group started as a student interest group with Sue teaching; Don Sena, a student, gave much time to its organization. It is a tribute to Susan and her family that real interest in English Country Dancing has been fostered so well -- and shows signs of growing apace. We were especially pleased to see some old friends and stalwarts of CDSS -- the Ned Shrigleys, Susan's parents, whom we first knew at Pinewoods, and Harry and Frances Holtzman, who not only transported us from Phoenix to Tucson for workshops but toured us about their new home in Sun City. With a nucleus like this, we should hear about a lot of exciting developments in Tucson! For one thing, there may be live music in their future, as plans for a music workshop with Marshall Barron in November are already under way. We can't wait to go back!

Christine and Ed Helwig
Larchmont, NY

and Sue writes the Helwigs:

Dear Helwigs,
...I feel I have so much to learn and yet have had not much guidance up to now. Having you here made me think that yes, indeed, I should continue...Since you came I feel encouraged & I realize that half of the pleasure of dancing is with whom you dance. If I can encourage friends to join me in a few sessions, maybe they might want to continue as a group. If I can experiment on my friends then maybe I could teach a class...

Thanks again for everything. It was so much fun!

Dear CDSS:

An ongoing feature: "Memorabilia" (or some such), might elicit many membership contributions to revive readers' memories of past delights: Pinewoods (CDSS headquarters), Berea, Brasstown, Hudson Guild, Cardigan, Mendocino, the myriad regular & irregular gatherings -- dance, song, instrument (air, water, fire, ice) -- where we have shared loves & joys, long & short; etc, etc.

I'm sidelined, but love you all always.

ODMENTS

AS OTHERS SEE US ...

I can think of no more fitting image for the ideal of social conduct than an English figure dance, composed of many complicated figures and perfectly executed. A spectator in the gallery sees innumerable movements intersecting in the most chaotic [!] fashion, changing direction swiftly and without rhyme or reason, yet never colliding. Everything is so ordered that the one has already yielded his place when the other arrives; it is all so skilfully, and yet so artlessly, integrated into a form that each seems only to be following his own inclination, yet without ever getting in the way of anybody else. It is the most perfectly appropriate symbol of the assertion of one's own freedom and regard for the freedom of others.

Friedrich von Schiller in a letter, 1793

THIS ISSUE of the NEWS

As you have noticed, the current issue has come to you first class. This is not because we have lost our minds, but because the Constitution requires timely notice of the Annual Meeting, which would have required a first-class mailing anyhow; so we decided to announce it here and thus (1) inform you, (2) get you your Members List that much earlier, (3) save the cost of a regular News mailing, and (4) FINALLY get this issue into your hands. Gearing up after the summer is hard, and some things have slipped behind. We hope to get caught up with the next issue.

EVENTS LISTINGS

The monthly listing gives special events: weekends, workshops, dawn dances, etc., run by our Associates or Centers, plus festivals we think you'll want to know about. PLEASE GIVE US VERY LONG NOTICE! We have to carry events far ahead because of the rotten mails. Ongoing activities of Centers and Associates are given in the yearly Centers and Associates List, which will be in the December issue.
